HCA Zeroes in on Outpatient Growth

Nashville, Tenn.-based HCA Healthcare doubled down on outpatient growth in 2025 with the addition of about 100 facilities to its outpatient lines. The 190-hospital system has “significant capital in the pipeline” for outpatient growth in 2026 and 2027, expected to come through the development of new facilities as well as acquisitions.

Oct. 17-20: IFHE World Congress Encourages Exchange of Ideas to Spark Healthcare Facility Innovation

For Fábio Bitencourt, healthcare architect, professor, and researcher in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, attending the International Federation of Healthcare Engineering (IFHE) World Congress in years past has provided an opportunity to explore the cultural nuances that shape healthcare experiences, and develop more effective design strategies. Bitencourt, who serves as 2nd vice president of IFHE, notes, "IFHE offers an opportunity to connect and discuss challenges experienced all over the world. Each time we hold this event, we have an opportunity to explore different cultures, different challenges in healthcare systems, and different ways of building." It is this valuable diversity of perspective that attendees of the 2026 IFHE World Congress stand to gain.
